█████████ Computer Replacement for IBM

A contract was signed with the █████████ Corporation for STATINTL procurement of a 470/V6-II computer. ████ computer is scheduled to begin acceptance tests on or before 26 December 1977 to replace the IBM 360/195. █████████ STATINTL

Minicomputer Procurement Concurrence for OSO

STATINTL Under guidance of █████████ ODP reviewed and concurred in an Office of SIGINT Operations procurement of four mini- STATINTL computers to be used in both Headquarters and the field. In conjunction with this procurement, OSO is establishing the PDP 11 series of minicomputers as the OSO standard. █████████

ODP Excess Equipment

ODP and Office of Weapons Intelligence personnel are discussing the use of ODP projected excess equipment in FY-78. During FY-78, ODP may provide an IBM 360/65-1 computer, disk, and unit record equipment █████████ location in STATINTL support of OWI's project █████████ This would become Govern- STATINTL ment furnished equipment (GFE) to replace equivalent equipment currently leased █████████ Transfer of this CIA owned equipment and purchase of required peripherals would result in a savings to the U.S. Government of approximately $450K over the estimated five year systems life. The IBM 360/65-1 will become excess to ODP when CAMS, where it is currently used, is upgraded to an IBM 370/158 computer. █████████ STATINTL

IBM Maintenance Contract Renewal

ODP wrote a sole source justification for an IBM maintenance contract and submitted it to Office of Logistics. Under the FY-78 GSA schedule, IBM provides a 10% discount to October billings if contract renewal for a fiscal year is completed before 16 December. This discount amounts to an approximate $13K savings for the ODP contract. █████████ STATINTL

SAFE

The Consolidated SAFE Management Plan is being coordi- STATINTL
nated within CIA by Mr. Blake, and in the DIA by the System Planning Office. All CIA, DIA and IC Staff comments were accommodated in a 13 December 1977 revision. █████████

TADS

STATINTL

The Office of Logistics' Contract Review Board was briefed on 14 December 1977 concerning exercising a contract option for procurement of six additional graphic stations for TADs.
The Board agrees that negotiations ████████ should proceed. STATINTL

Support to Office of Personnel

PERSIGN - Integrated Personnel Information System. We are drafting a revised PERSIGN Time/Event chart based on   STATINTL revised estimates of the amount of specifications work to be done. A new project schedule reflecting these changes will be presented at the January OP/MAP meeting. ████████

Support to Office of Security

A preliminary meeting was held with the Office of Security to discuss the development of an automated Agency Visitor and Employee Access System. Functional requirements for the system are currently being defined. ████████   STATINTL

Training

A two day course, Data Processing Concepts, was completed by 16 students. A three day course, CIM II Utilities, was completed by 12 students, six of whom are Federal Bureau of STATINTL Investigation employees who have been provided this training to help them become more proficient with their new CIM-II STATINTL   system at FBI. ████████
